

e. Storage device → Device used to store data for future reference are called storage device.

Ex - CD, Pen drive

d. CPU (Central processing unit) is called the brain of these computer. because all the inputs from the devices comes to it and it processes the information and sends the output to the device and everything is stored it which helps on the functioning of the PC.